Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

The Summons alleges that the Issuing Officer observed several pieces of wood out for collection, not securely bundled, not tied and likely to be scattered on the curb Respondent appeared via counsel Michael Nacmis, Esq., and waived the presence of the Issuing Officer.

Counsel makes a motion to dismiss that Respondent passed away on June 10, 2023 before the issuance of the summons. Counsel submits a Death Certificate, admitted as Respondent's Exhibit A.

I find that the named respondent was deceased on the date of the alleged violation as indicated on the Death Certificate, and accordingly was not a responsible party.

Accordingly, the Summons is dismissed.
