Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

Petitioner NYPD was not present. Michael Nacmias, Esq., appeared on behalf of Respondent RHONDA L TANZMAN at telephone hearing on October 24, 2025. Respondent's counsel waived the presence of the issuing officer, a formal reading of the charges and the use of a translator.

Respondent was charged with violating section 19-190(B) of the Administrative Code for failure to yield and causing physical injury. Date of occurrence was 09/04/25.

Respondent's counsel argued the summons should be dismissed because it fails to establish a prima facie case. First, the summons fails to allege a physical injury. Second, the summons does not state if Respondent was in a motor vehicle nor who had the right of way and whether a pedestrian or cyclist was involved. No additional evidence was submitted.

Section 19-190(B) states in relevant part "... any driver of a motor vehicle who violates subdivision a of this section and whose motor vehicle causes contact with a pedestrian or person riding a bicycle and thereby causes physical injury..."

I credit the sworn statement of the issuing officer but find that Petitioner failed to establish a violation. I find Respondent's arguments to have merit. The summons fails to alleged the necessary elements of violation under 19-190(B).

Therefore, the summons is dismissed.
