Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

The hearing was conducted by phone on December 26, 2025. Petitioner did not appear. Respondent appeared through Michael Nacmias, Esq.

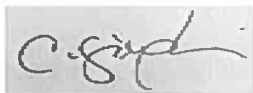

Respondent was charged with a violation of AC 19-190(b).

Mr. Nacmias moved to dismiss on service and lack of a prima facie case. He noted that Respondent did not receive a physical copy of the affidavit of service and that the affidavit failed to indicate who was served and how. He also argued that the IO failed to allege that Respondent failed to yield or struck an individual who had the right of way. He argued that the alleged physical injury was not pleaded with sufficient specificity.

I find the IO failed to complete the affidavit (certificate) of service. I also find that the summons fails to state a prima facie case.

Therefore, I dismiss the summons.
