Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

The summons alleges that respondent committed a violation of the New York City Administrative Code section 19-190(b) with the following factual allegations: "right of way – failure to yield, physical injury."

Nora Brown appeared on behalf of Respondent. The Police Department did not appear.

Ms. Brown moved to dismiss on two grounds. Firstly, for defective service, noting that the affidavit of service is blank.

Secondly, she argued that the summons fails to make out a prima facie violation.

I agree with respondent on both counts. The summons is dismissed for defective service and for failure to make out a prima facie violation.
