Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

Petitioner NYPD did not appear. Attorney Michael Nacmias appeared on behalf of HASSAN ZULFIQAR at telephone hearing on November 10, 2025. Respondent's counsel waived the present of the issuing officer and a formal reading of the charges. Respondent was charged with violating section 19-190(B) of the Administrative Code. Date of occurrence was 09/19/25.

Respondent's counsel made two arguments in support of the dismissal of the summons. First, the summons was defective since it had a blank affidavit of service. Thus, Petitioner failed to provide proper proof of service as per the CPLR. Second, the summons is facially defective because it does not allege a violation since it does not describe what kind of injury the
