Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

Petitioner did not appear. Respondent, DANNY CARRENO, appeared by attorney, Michael Nacmias Esq., to answer a charge of striking a pedestrian within the crosswalk with his vehicle.

Mr. Nacmias moved to dismiss the summons stating that the affidavit of service is blank.

OATH HEARINGS DIVISION RULES OF PRACTICE states in Section 6-08(a)(1) Issuance and Filing of Summons that the Petitioner must file an original or a copy of the summons, together with proof of service, with the Tribunal prior to the first scheduled hearing date. Due to the fact the affidavit of service is blank, and December 31, 2025 (today) is the first hearing date, there is no proof of service filed with the Tribunal prior to the first scheduled hearing date. Therefore, proof of service is improper and summons is DISMISSED.
