Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

A telephonic hearing was held on Tuesday, January 27, 2026. No appearance on behalf of Petitioner. Michael Nacmias, Esq. appeared for Respondent and waived the Issuing Officer's presence.

Mr. Nacmias stated that Respondent moved to dismiss the summons for improper service. A review of the summons's Certificate of Service revealed that it was blank. Therefore, I am convinced by Respondent's argument. Respondent's motion to dismiss was granted.

Accordingly, the summons is dismissed for improper service.
