Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

Michael Nacmias appeared on behalf of Respondent Chrisann Romand.

Petitioner charges AC 19-190(b). Petitioner alleges defendant is informed by defendant that she was turning onto Bay Ridge Pkwy. failing to yield to pedestrian.

Mr. Nacmias states respondent denies the allegation. He states petitioner has failed to make out a prima facie case in that it does not allege serious physical injury. Further, petitioner's Affidavit of Service is blank therefore service is defective.

I credit respondent's evidence and find petitioner has failed to make out a prima facie case of this charge since it fails to allege serious physical injury. Further, petitioner has failed to prove effective service.

I do not credit petitioner's evidence and find respondent is not in violation.

As such, this summons must be dismissed.
